ABOUT THE POSITION

Deputy District Attorney I/II/III: Under direction, to assist the District Attorney in the prosecution of criminal cases; and to perform related work as required.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Deputy District Attorney I: This is the entry and trainee level in the alternately staffed Deputy District Attorney class series. Although duties may be common to the next higher class of Deputy District Attorney II, incumbents are typically assigned a variety of less complex cases and function within more clearly defined guidelines.

Deputy District Attorney II: This is the journey level in the alternately staffed Deputy District Attorney class series, and incumbents are expected to exercise a high degree of independent judgment in handling assigned cases. Positions in this class are distinguished from positions in the next higher class of Deputy District Attorney III in that the latter are assigned more complex and sensitive cases.

Deputy District Attorney III: Incumbents at this level in the alternately staffed Deputy District Attorney class series perform specialized legal work in criminal matters, which are more varied, complex and sensitive in nature. The incumbent is capable of handling all matters prosecuted by the District Attorney with some supervision in the most complex cases.
EXAMPLES OF DUTIES

Deputy District Attorney I: Prosecutes misdemeanor and infraction cases; receives requests for complaints filed by arresting officers and determines the nature of the crime and whether the evidence justifies prosecution; appears in all courts and presents criminal cases; tries both court and jury trials; prepares briefs and legal opinions; conducts legal research; prepares correspondence and memos.

Deputy District Attorney II: Prosecutes misdemeanor, infractions, juvenile cases, and felony cases; reviews requests for complaints filed by law enforcement and determines the nature of the crime and whether the evidence justifies prosecution; appears in all courts and presents criminal cases; conducts preliminary hearings and motions; tries both court and jury trials; prepares briefs and legal opinions; conducts legal research; prepares correspondence and memos.

Deputy District Attorney III: Prosecutes all types of cases including the most serious and sensitive cases; receives requests for complaints filed by arresting officers and determines the nature of the crime and whether the evidence justifies prosecution; tries both court and jury trials in all courts including juvenile court; prepares briefs and legal opinions; conducts legal research; prepares correspondence and memos; appears in all courts on behalf of the District Attorney; prepares and presents criminal cases and those limited civil cases handled by the District Attorney.
